Gay Professional Organizations Unite for Community Charities

New York, NY (May 24, 2009)-Several local gay professional organizations and businesses, including Club Martini, The MenEvent.com, Out Professional, HX magazine and LeGal combine efforts to raise money for community charities. He Works Hard for the Money, a unique networking party, benefits God's Love We Deliver, GMHC and Bailey House.

He Works Hard for the Money will feature live entertainment with mc Bobby Rivers (Food Network & VH-1, www.bobbyrivers.com) and performances by Ari Gold (www.arigold.com), Keyth Lawrence (www.keythlawrence.com), Tom Vee (www.tomvee.com) and Josh Zuckerman (www.joshzuckerman.com), drink specials including two for one drinks from 6 to 7 pm, a DJ, special guests including State Senator Tom Duane and more. The event will take place on Thursday, May 5, 2005 at Strata. Strata is located at 915 Broadway @ 21st Street, New York, New York. The benefit runs from 6 pm to 10 pm. The cover charge, $30, and goes directly to the three charities in equal shares. Checks should be made payable to God's Love We Deliver.

GMHC, God's Love We Deliver and Bailey House are well respected non profit organizations who are instrumental in the fight against HIV/AIDS and in the support of efforts to assist and comfort those suffering with the disease. The goal of the event is to not only raise funds for their efforts but also to lead to a renewed awareness of the ongoing crisis.

Out Professionals and LeGal are professional groups with members throughout the New York City area. Club Martini, The MenEvent.com and HX Magazine sponsor a variety of social and charitable events. He Works for the Money was the idea of a group of friends who often attend the monthly events of the sponsors and saw the opportunity of a combined party for a truly important cause.
