OVERVIEW

Presented by the Hollywood Foreign Press Association, the annual Golden Globe Awards ceremony is one of Hollywood's most important events, beloved for its spontaneous party atmosphere where anything can—and usually does—happen. The star-studded evening uniquely celebrates both the television and film industries—and the award winners frequently foreshadow Oscars to come.

Year after year, In Style enjoys unsurpassed presence and influence at the Golden Globes, contributing to every aspect of the festivities, from pre-ceremony presentations, to the actual event, to our celebrity packed after-party.

This year, as always, each presenter received an In Style Presenter Box filled with luxury goods—second only to an actual Golden Globe Award as the most coveted item of the evening. In Style furnished gift bags for all Golden Globe ceremony attendees, hosted a VIP viewing dinner and an after-party next door to the Golden Globes event.

In Style and the Golden Globes—a winning combination!

This thing is really heavy," commented winner Charlize Theron as she made her way, Golden Globe statue in tow, to InStyle/Warner Bros. Pictures' post-show gain at the Beverly Hilton's Palm Court.

An unannounced Prince stole the stage to accompany the night's fun and rockin' R&B/soul group Durell Coleman Band to play his 1986 hit "Kiss." You could n't drop or pick up a lipstick without seeing someone from the small or big screens: Kevin Costner, Jane Fonda, Jamie Lee Curtis, William H. Macy, Elijah Wood, Kim Cattrall and Jennifer Garner. Executives included InStyle magazine's Lynette Harrison, Stephanie George and Charia Lawhon. — Deeann J. Hoff

Purple playin': Prince didn't win anything at the Golden Globes — hell, he wasn't even nominated — but he played the InStyle/Warner Bros. after-party.

Behind the Seams

BY STEVEN COJOCARU

AND THE WINNERS ARE . . . The presenters at the Jan. 25 Golden Globes. They will each receive a $26,000 gift box from InStyle and the Hollywood Foreign Press, including a $7,000 spa and hotel package, a $5,000 photo session, a $600 bottle of Clive Christian's Most Expensive Perfume in the World, a De Beers diamond pin, a Dennis Alan quilt, Milano pearl earrings, men's and women's products from Ken's, a Sports Club/L.A. membership and—get this—an Exuberant subquand. With a prize line that, who's going to want to win a lousy old award? . . .

LOS ANGELES

This year, the InStyle/Warner Bros. party was THE place to be and be seen for starlets such as Scarlett Johansson, Erika Christensen, Gabrielle Union and Maria Bello, the latter in a stunning white satin Louis Verdad gown. Also partying were Holly Hunter, Allison Janney, Jamie Lee Curtis, Kevin Costner and fiancée Christine Baumgartner, Clint Eastwood, Jennifer Beals, Jennifer Garner, Joely Richardson, Katie Holmes, Portia de Rossi, Patricia Arquette, Bonnie Hunt, Diane Lane and Brittany Murphy, looking very Harlow in a Dolce & Gabbana chiffon gown. Troy Garity brought his mom, Jane Fonda, who is set to star with Jennifer Lopez in "Monster in Law." Sexy blond "CSI: Miami" star Emily Procter looked slinky in a navy knit dress with aquamarine jewels from Miami jeweler Samuel Getz, while Patricia Clarkson looked very "It Takes a Thief" in her navy Bill Blass strapless gown with Martin Katz jewelry. Globe winner Charlize Theron, with new beau Stuart Townsend (both wearing Christian Dior), celebrated with her mom, Gerda. But poor Tom Cruise was flying solo because girlfriend Penelope Cruz had to fly home to Spain to see her sick father. Even Hobbits Wood and Monaghan showed up at InStyle, no doubt because that's where all the chiffon and sequined action was.
